1. APPLICATION TERMS. If you are admitted, you will be placed in the appropriate program track based on your academic and English language credentials submitted with your application. You acknowledge that there are price differences between each program track based on program track length and course of study. You acknowledge that by submitting your application, you are not guaranteed admission at TOSI University. If you are currently seeking or intend to seek permanent resident status at any point during your anticipated tenure at TOSI University, you must disclose such intent at the time of application and you will not be permitted to apply to TOSI Collegiate.

2. ENROLLMENT; TUITION AND FEES.

2.1 Once your application has been reviewed, and if you are conditionally accepted to the TOSI Collegiate, a post-acceptance letter in the TOSI Collegiate will be extended to you. Once you have received your conditional offer, you must pay your enrollment deposit (“Deposit”), and meet all other listed conditions, to be eligible for admission. As part of your conditional offer you will receive other important information and documents that contain additional terms and conditions governing your participation in the program. Please familiarize yourself with all documentation provided to you by TOSI Collegiate.

2.2 Following payment of your Deposit, an invoice (the “Statement of Fees”) will be sent to you which will contain your remaining outstanding balance (the “Outstanding Balance”) and your payment due date. You acknowledge and agree that you will pay to TOSI Collegiate the Outstanding Balance shown on your Statement of Fees, including any banking or processing fees, by the indicated due date. TOSI Collegiate has the right to amend its prices from time to time and will provide you with notice of any amended prices via email or through other reasonable means.

2.3 Failure to pay the Outstanding Balance by the due date may lead to penalties, including late fees, legal collection fees, and a hold on your account that will prevent you from enrolling in classes. If you are unable to enroll in classes due to your failure to pay the Outstanding Balance and any applicable fees, you may violate the terms of your immigration status. More information regarding your obligations to maintain proper immigration status is included below.

2.4 You may elect to take a preparatory assessment test upon arrival to campus. The results of the assessment test are used to place you on the program track that is appropriate for your skill level, and which may be different from what was indicated in your post-acceptance letter. If your assessment test score does not meet the criteria for your assigned program track, you will not be able to enroll on that track. As a result, the length of study may be longer than originally anticipated and involve additional costs.

2.5 You must maintain a cumulative GPA of 3.0 (cumulative GPA is the overall GPA or grade point average of all cumulative GPA's you have earned in all semesters and all the courses in an academic term) or better if you were awarded an Academic Excellence Scholarship. If you do not meet the minimum GPA requirement or the balance due to the TOSI Collegiate program is not paid by the payment deadline stipulated on your Statement of Fees, your scholarship and/or other discounts may be rescinded. In such cases you will be responsible for the full cost of your program.

2.6 You may defer your enrollment for up to one calendar year (i.e., two consecutive semesters, including summer); however, your deposit will roll-over for one semester only, not including summer (i.e., a Spring deposit will apply for next Fall, but a new deposit is required starting with the following Spring semester). We will not refund your original deposit. After one calendar year, you will be required to re-apply with a new application and deposit. You must request an enrollment deferral before your Move-In date. Contact your Enrollment Advisor for additional information.

3. DEPOSIT REFUNDS.

3.1 You are only eligible for a deposit refund in the following circumstances:

(a) if you have both (i) an admissions offer for a particular semester and (ii) you provide us with written notification and documentation (visa appointment confirmation including DS160 application number, SEVIS fee payment receipt and visa denial letter) confirming your visa was denied prior to the Start Date of that same semester (to illustrate, if you receive an admissions offer for the fall semester and, following a visa denial for that fall semester you defer your admission to the spring semester, we will only refund your deposit if you can demonstrate a visa denial for the spring semester); or

(b) if you have obtained a visa but are denied entry upon arrival to the U.S., provided that you have already paid your Outstanding Balance in full (including any housing or other fees), have completed your pre-arrival documentation, and are not denied entry to the U.S. because of your own wrongdoing.

Otherwise, we do not provide Deposit refunds. You must submit your deposit refund request form and supporting documents within sixty (60) days following the Start Date. For the avoidance of doubt, we do not provide Deposit refunds for students who (i) transfer their TOSI University-issued I-20 to another institution, or (ii) have provided false or fraudulent documents, have engaged in academic dishonesty or misconduct (including cheating), or who have otherwise committed acts of wrongdoing that make them ineligible for admission to TOSI Collegiate.

4. TUITION REFUNDS.

4.1 If you cancel your enrollment prior to your Move-In Date, you may request a full refund of tuition and fees paid, minus non-refundable fees, subject to the exclusions stated in the following paragraphs. After the start of the semester you may be eligible for a partial refund calculated according to the table below. Non-refundable fees include, but are not limited to, your Deposit, housing fees, insurance, and a $500 processing fee.

Intake Semester	Last day for 50% Refund	Begin 0% Refund
Fall	Monday of 1st week of classes	Day after last day for 25% refund
Spring	Monday of 1st week of classes	Day after last day for 25% refund
Summer	See note below	See note below

Pre-Sessional English only. Students may receive a refund for the summer term, calculated pro-rata less any non-refundable fees, until 50% of the summer term has passed. Thereafter, students who drop summer classes will not receive a refund and will receive a final grade of “W.”

4.2 If you transfer your TOSI University-issued I-20 to another institution prior to or within the first two weeks of your first semester classes, we will not refund any portion of your tuition or fees.

4.3 All refund requests (other than those for Deposit refunds) must be submitted within sixty (60) days following the date that you either complete or withdraw from your program. All refunds will be issued in United States Dollars, minus bank transfer and processing fees, including any fees incurred for a rejected payment, according to the exchange rate in place at the time of the refund. All refunds will be made to eligible parties within 60 days following receipt of an accurate and completed refund form.

4.4 In addition to the restrictions described above, no refunds will be given: (i) if you must withdraw due to your actual or anticipated change to permanent resident status (ii) for any housing-related fees, (iii) for any insurance-related fees, and (iv) in cases of administrative separation, dismissal, suspension or expulsion.

4.5 In the event that you are granted a valid medical withdrawal tuition refund by TOSI University which is in conflict with this Agreement, we will honor that refund (minus non-refundable fees).
